Situated in Yichang city, a comparably small town in Hubei province, around 400 Indian students are studying MBBS in China at this well known China Three Gorges University. The city is situated at around 2 hour of travel from the fastest growing city of Central China, Wuhan. There is extremely famous for the tourists floating for all year around. Out of 400 Indian students studying MBBS in China. There are almost 75% of the students are from South India and others are from rest of the country. If you stand on the big central road of this top medical college campus of China having entire facilities for the Chinese students and the international students on its right side and student hostels, International canteen and other facilities on the left side, you would see an Indian student moving on the road in their Indian attire, mostly in "Loongi" in the evening hours. These students left their home from Kerala in the dream to pursue Medical program at a top medical college in China and doing so peacefully, safely and happily.
